· DOUBLE EXECUTION.

Two Men Hanged at Andover for Murdering Peddler Green.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) Arosha and Leon Seppepil were hanged for the murder of Edward Green, the Montreal peddler, at the county jail here at 6 o'clock this morning. It was the first double execution in the history of the Province, and Rad- shaft is down forty feet, and the same Cliffe, the public executioner, performed his grim task without a hitch. The executioner led the way to the gallows, Father Ryan reciting the Litany of the Blessed Virgin. Arosha and Seppepil, with their hands handcuffed behind their backs, walked next in single file, with the guards heside them. The two men were deathly pale, but showed no signs of faltering and mounted the scaffold steps without assistance. There was dislocation of the neck in each case and death was instantaneous.
